SATURDAY HIKE AND CHESTNUT PICKING

Join us for an exciting autumn hike on Etna, immersed in the season's warm colors and the tradition of chestnut picking!

We will walk through the chestnut groves of Etna, enjoying breathtaking views and spending a day in the open air, surrounded by nature and local traditions. For this occasion, we will be guests of Mr. Tomarchio, a chestnut grower and producer who also grows cherries in the summer: he will welcome us and guide us through the picking experience directly on his land.

An authentic and respectful way to get to know the territory, meet those who take care of it, and discover one of the most characteristic traditions of the Etna autumn up close.

Also suitable for families with children: A perfect experience for both adults and little ones! Children can have fun picking chestnuts, exploring the trails, and learning about nature.
