BRETAGNA - LA COSTA DEL VENTO

TRA SCOGLIERE, MEGALITI E MARE - DA CROZON ALLA COSTA DI GRANITO ROSA

From 18 to 25 June 2027

C'è una Bretagna che va oltre le immagini da cartolina. Una terra aspra e selvaggia, modellata dal vento e dall'oceano, dove le scogliere si tuffano nell'Atlantico, il granito assume sfumature sorprendenti e i piccoli villaggi di pescatori conservano ancora il fascino di un tempo lontano.

Un viaggio di otto giorni alla scoperta di una delle regioni più suggestive della Francia, da vivere a piedi e a bordo dei nostri pulmini, seguendo il ritmo delle maree e lasciandoci accompagnare dalla brezza dell'oceano.

Partiremo dalla selvaggia penisola di Crozon, raggiungeremo la spettacolare Pointe du Raz, estremo lembo occidentale della Francia continentale, esploreremo l'isola di Batz, con i suoi giardini e la sua atmosfera mediterranea, e ci lasceremo conquistare dai paesaggi fiabeschi della Costa di Granito Rosa.

Lungo il percorso incontreremo antichi megaliti risalenti a migliaia di anni fa, imponenti cattedrali di pietra scolpite dal mare, borghi medievali e porticcioli dove le ostriche sono una vera tradizione.

Un itinerario tra natura, storia e paesaggi straordinari, con un gran finale davanti alla meraviglia del Mont-Saint-Michel.
